PLAN FOR BRITISH AND AMERICAN MONETARY CO-OPERATION

GOLD BUYING BEGINS

FOREIGN PURCHASES BY R.F.C. TO-DAY

Federal Reserve As Govt. Agent.

ROOSEVELT HOPES TO RAISE PRICES

Washington, To-day.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation announces that America's gold purchases abroad will begin to-day.

The announcement was made in a broadcast speech, last night, by Mr. Jesse Jones, Chairman of the R.F.C. He said that the Corporation had authorised the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to dispose of R.F.C. notes and to take in payment of the foreign gold which will be imported.

He added that the Federal Reserve Bank would be the Government's sole agent, and that the price to be paid will be announced in the morning.—Reuter.

ROOSEVELT RIDING TWO HORSES.

Sound Money And Inflation.

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL.

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received November 2, 10.45 a.m.)

Washington, To-day.

Mr. Henry Morgenthau, United States Department of Agriculture, representative, yesterday indicated that the purchasing of foreign gold might have been started.

He declared that he felt that the Recovery programme was progressing, including the monetary and re-employment phases.

He hopes the turn will continue upward.

It is reported that President Roosevelt is most hopeful that the purchasers of foreign gold will increase the general price level.

Officials are now establishing purchasing machinery, which is expected to be ready soon.

The arrival of the Governors of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and North Dakota, to plead immediate inflation and other farm measures has convinced observers that the new statement of the Administration's monetary policy will not be delayed much longer.

Critics contend that President Roosevelt is trying to ride two horses, sound money and inflation, in an effort to keep the support of all groups.—United Press, per S. C. Gold Bar Co.

War Debt Parley At White House.

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL.

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received November 2, 12.15 p.m.)

Washington, To-day.

The White House has indicated that the foreign gold purchases by the United States, will probably begin to-day.

It is also announced that President Roosevelt yesterday conferred with the British Ambassador to Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay and Sir Frederick Leith-Ross.

It was later stated, however, that only war debts were discussed.—United Press, per S. C. Gold Bar Co.

Mr. Cordell Hull.

$1,365,000 IN INCOME TAX

Paid By U.S. Banker In Five Years.

EVEN AFTER TAX Evasion

Washington, To-day. Further sensation was caused yesterday by the former President of the Chase Bank, Mr. Albert Wiggin, who is testifying before the United States Senate Banking Investigation Committee, which is now probing the affairs of the Chase Bank.

Mr. Wiggin said that the purpose of his large short sale in Chase National Bank stock, in 1929, was to "postpone" tax payments. He added that he had saved tax amounting to U.S.$44,000 on stock profit totalling U.S.$4,000,000.

He declared that he paid income tax amounting to U.S.$1,365,000 during the past five years.

The Committee examined a letter indicating that the Chase, Harris and Forbes Company which is affiliated with the Chase National Bank, suggested to their clients, a method of establishing losses in order to evade payment of income tax.—Reuter.

SPECULATION IN SILVER

Wall Street Rumours Of Remonetisation.

MARKET IMPROVES

New York, To-day. Industrial issues recovered sharply on the New York Stock Exchange, yesterday, the averages were also up .22 to 36.16.

Utilities and bonds weakened .17 and .16 to 22.91 and 82.44 respectively.

Silver was strong throughout the session, due to speculative buying, which was undoubtedly based on rumours of possibilities of the remonetisation of silver.

Silver prices continued to improve on the Commodity Exchange, here, yesterday. The December trading price advanced from 40 cents per ounce to 40.88 cents, while the March trading price rose .86 to 41.45 cents.—Reuter.

PRIME MINISTER'S DAUGHTER'S ENGAGEMENT RUMOURED

Miss Isabel MacDonald To Wed Montreal Professor?

London. The United Press, on October 26, quoted an unimpeachable source in a copyrighted article, saying that Miss Isabel MacDonald, daughter of the Prime Minister, Mr. J. Ramsay MacDonald, was engaged to marry Professor J. King Gordo, of Montreal.

Miss Isabel has been the Prime Minister's official hostess and has accompanied him frequently on his many official trips. She has been head of his household since Mr. MacDonald's wife died in 1911.

BRITISH FOREIGN TRADE INCREASE

Revival Revealed In Shipping Statistics.

BIGGER SEPTEMBER CARGOES

London, To-day. A further sign of trade revival is afforded in the shipping movements at United Kingdom ports during September.

The Board of Trade statistics show that the net tonnage of vessels arriving in foreign trade during September, 34th cargo, showed an increase of 9.4 per cent., as compared with the corresponding month of last year.

Departures with cargo were of 3.6 per cent. greater tonnage. Arrivals in ballast were 3.0 per cent., and departures 9.0 per cent. greater.

Coasting trade arrivals and departures with cargo, rose by 5.7 and 5.6 per cent. respectively, and ballast movements were 9.1 and 9.7 per cent. heavier respectively.

In the third quarter of 1933, foreign trade shows an increase of 4.5 per cent. in cargo entrances, and of about 3.0 per cent. in cargo clearances, as compared with the September quarter of 1932.—British Wireless Service.

"DEBT TALKS ONLY."

Communiqué Issued After Conference

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt received Sir Frederick Leith-Ross and Sir Ronald Lindsay, at the White House yesterday afternoon for a conference at which Mr. Cordell Hull, U.S. Secretary of State, and Mr. Dean Acheson, Under Secretary of the Treasury, were also present.

A communiqué issued at the close stated that the conference was a continuation of the debt-settlement discussions, which would be further continued.

The communiqué added: "There is nothing at all final," and that the subject of gold purchases in England had not been considered.

DOLLAR-STERLING WAR UNLIKELY.

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt's advisers have indicated that the negotiations with Great Britain are proceeding satisfactorily. It is predicted that America's gold operations abroad will not result in a dollar-sterling duel.

The unofficial opinion is that the foreign attitude to the gold purchase scheme will be to concretely tolerate test purchases as long as fluctuations are kept within reasonable bounds.—Reuter.

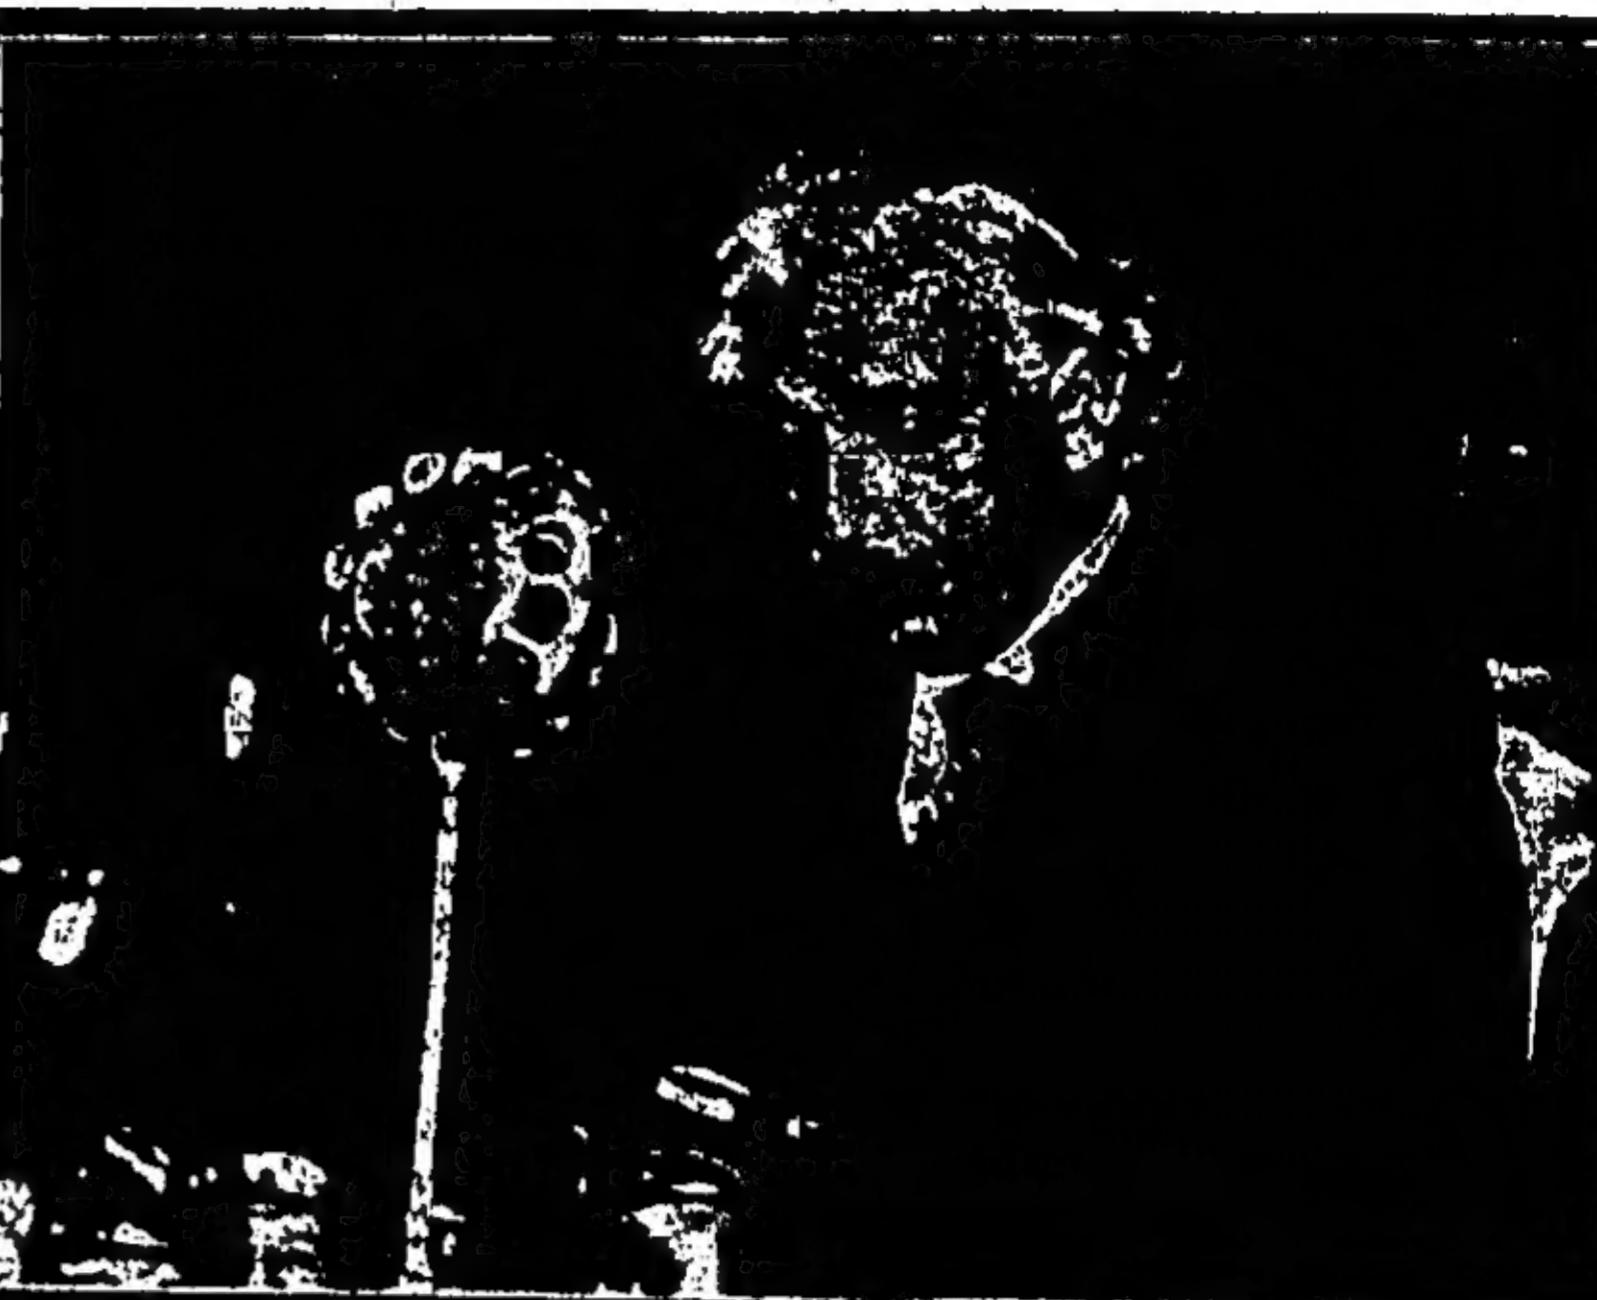

High U.S. Export Trade For September.

Washington.

The department of commerce has announced that United States exports amounted to $160,000,000. in September, the highest figure for any month since December, 1931.

Imports mounted to $147,000,000. representing a slight decline from August, due partly to decreased imports of Philippines sugar, which fell off $1,100,000.—United Press.

LIBRARY, SUPREME COURT

Dr. Einstein on liberty. His first public address on a general subject.—Professor Einstein, the celebrated scientist, addressed a large meeting at the Albert Hall, London, on Oct. 3, on "Fair Play For The Oppressed". The talk was under the auspices of the Academic Assistance Council whose object is to assist intellectual Jewish refugees from Germany.

Following a report that Scotland Yard had received an anonymous message concerning a plot to assassinate the famous scientist, the Albert Hall was closely guarded during the meeting.

BRITISH JOURNALIST EXPelled

Nazis To Release Noel Panter.

EIGHT DAYS IN MUNICH GAOL

Berlin, To-day.

Mr. Noel Panter, the Munich correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph," who was arrested on October 24 by the Nazis, is to be released and expelled from Germany.

It was stated previously that Panter would be tried at the Supreme Court at Leipzig on a charge of treason against the State. The charge was based on the "accumulation of information concerning the 'Storm Troops'" and Hitler's Guards which was used so as to convey the impression that they were military formation and that Germany was thus violating the Treaty of Versailles.

Panter's arrest was in connection with his descriptive report, reproduced in the "Daily Telegraph," of the parade of "Storm Troops" which Chancellor Hitler addressed at Kelheim, on October 22.

GOLD BARS SMUGGLED INTO MANCHUKUO

Sent In Soviet Consular Motor-Boat.

ANOTHER HARBIN DIPLOMATIC TUSSLE

Harbin, To-day.

Another diplomatic tussle between M. Slavutsky, the Soviet Consul-General here, and Mr. Shih Liu-pen, of the Manchukuo Foreign Office, looms regarding the alleged use of Soviet Consular motor-boat for the smuggling of gold bars from Manchukuo.

Manchukuo reports state that a Soviet business concern in Taehien recently sent ten gold bars by a Soviet Consular motor-boat to Blagoveschensk. Confirmation of this report is now being awaited, after which Mr. Shih will lodge a firm protest with M. Slavutsky.

It is further stated that the Soviet Consul at Taehien has a private wharf and several motor-boats at his disposal.

These boats are used for carrying officials with diplomatic despatches to Blagoveschensk and this method is alleged to be also used for the smuggling of gold bars.—Reuter.

ANGLO-CHINESE RELATIONS

"Never Better Than To-day."

SIR MILES LAMPSON SEES PEKING PRESSMEN

Peking, To-day. Sir Miles Lampson, British Minister to China, according a privilege never granted to foreign correspondents, yesterday received Chinese pressmen.

The Minister issued a statement in which he stated that Anglo-Chinese relations were never better than to-day.

Britain had no individual or political ambitions in China, her sole object being to see a prosperous and orderly Chinese State, with which trade could flourish and British merchants could enjoy peace and security.—Reuter.

BURMA ENVOYS FOR LONDON

To Discuss Question Of Future Constitution.

SEPARATION FROM INDIA?

London, To-day.

The invitation of the Secretary of State for India, Sir Samuel Hoare, to join a delegation from Burma for consultation on the question of the future constitution of Burma, has been accepted by 12 representative persons. They include seven Burmans, one European, one Anglo-Indian, two Indians and one woman. They are expected to assemble in London early in December.

The Joint Select Committee on Indian Constitutional Reforms will cease to exist when the present session for Parliament, which created it, comes to an end. The Committee will probably be constructed when the new session opens on November 21.

Lancashire M. P. Talks Of Embargo Against Japan

London, To-day.

Major Proctor is arranging a meeting between the Legislative Council of the United Textile Factory Workers' Association, which represents all the trade unions in the cotton industry, and the Lancashire Members of the House of Commons, to discuss the question of Japanese competition in the cotton and piece-goods industries.—Reuter.

"It is quite within the ambit of the Government to completely embargo Japanese goods in Britain and the Colonial Empire, and to co-operate with the Dominions so that they will do the same," declared Major H. A. Proctor, the Conservative member for the Accrington division of Lancashire, in an interview yesterday, with the "Financial News."

Oriental Mode

A charming Autumn ensemble is worn by Mae Clarke, screen player, who leans towards the Chinese influence in selecting her wardrobe. Blouse and skirt are of gleaming satin. Note the sleeve and neckline arrangement of the blouse. The tiny "pagoda" hat is another Oriental touch.

Modes For Many Moments

MORTAR-BOARD HATS FOR WINTER

Worn At An Impudent Angle.

The hat that all are going to wear this winter is the Mortar Board.

It has an impudent angle: the point comes bang over one eye and there is a decorative tassel.

At the back, the skull cap grips the head in the way all made-to-fit-you hats do these days. On top of this cap the points rise, giving a lovely line and suggestion of height.

Modern hairdressing exactly suits the Mortar Board.

Worn on a cropped head, the effect is lost. It is the combination of feminine curls and the sober, masculine lines of the hat that is so intriguing.

Useful Dress Tips.

The dress shows offer many useful tips for the home dressmaker. Some of these are:-

Narrow shoulder-straps of rolled lace on a parchment coloured lace evening dress, and,

The Grande Dame The formal evening dress is a grande dame indeed. It flows about the figure, it trails the ground. It is so rich in material and so perfectly cut and richly trimmed, that to put a false jewel on it would be sacrilege.

No one or two, but all the leading designers, have made handsome evening dresses for the coming season. It is quite time the cry of poverty ceased, they say.

The very hard, high, square, Prussian shoulder line has gone. It lingers here and there as dying fashions do but its day is done. There is an inclination towards the Raglan shoulder line, but with a suave, smooth turn to the arm and a tight sleeve in dresses, but not in coats.

Vionnet inspires many of them, as she does the draperies drawn about the back and neck line.

The hips are slim on skirts, with jaunty little pockets at the front. Only when short, basqued jackets are worn is there any suggestion of making the hips fuller. Naggy Rouff has done this frankly, and many dressmakers have done the same thing with restraint.

CLEANING FURNITURE

If your collection of modern furniture includes white leather arm chairs, remember to wash them only with bland soap and luke warm water.

length dresses for day wear, but so far these have not materialised and as every rumour has been wrong up to date, it seems unnecessary to get alarmed over this one."

Velvet again is used for the new hip-length evening capes worn over superbly elegant gowns in faille or crinkly georgette with slit-up skirts and yards of scolloped ruching.

There are horrid rumours of full-

If Winter Comes

The season when winter comes back into their own is almost upon us, and here Florine McKinney, screen actress, displays the latest addition to her Winter wardrobe. It is an ermine coat of entirely new cut. Fan shaped lapels may be worn stock fashion or thrown back over the shoulders to form a semi-cape.

MAKE-UP ACCORDING TO COLOUR.

Red-Headed Girls Need No Rouge.

Women who have grey or white hair should always use a touch of rouge, especially if they have blue eyes. Blue eyes under white hair, eyes. Blue eyes under white hair, unless they are flattered by a little pink in the cheeks, have a tendency to look faded.

Red-headed girls often look best without rouge, but practically every one else past 20 needs it at least once in a while.

Some clothes demand it more than others—black, navy, brown, and grey. If you wear dahlia, purple, or wine colour, you must be careful to choose a dark colour for lips and cheeks.

On the other hand, orange-reds are better with green and brown. Select rouge to go with red hats and dresses with especial care.

Capes For The Country.

Velvet jumpers are worn with tweed suits and capes. There are many of these capes, mostly for country wear. They are full, reaching only to the waist, and have a long slit each side for the arms.

THE WORLD OF BRIDGE

By ELY CULBERTSON

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Some time ago I wrote an article about a coloured team of four, known as the "Black Four Horsemen." This was the result of a communication which I received from one of the members of the team, in which he enclosed a hand bid by them. The bidding was no original in nature that I was unable to resist transcribing it, but it seems that in doing so I have aroused some amount of criticism from other members of the coloured race. The purpose of this present article is to explain that I did not intend to reflect in any way on the playing ability of the coloured race as a whole.

I am now in receipt of a communication from Mr. Edwin Sheen of Washington, D.C., which goes a long way toward proving that one's race has no influence on one's Bridge game. Mr. Sheen encloses the following hand for this reason, and I think that it is worth recording.

1—A very reasonable psychic, in view of the part-score of 35. South knows that it will make it harder for East and West to get together.

2—A strategic bid in order to protect partner.

3—Not strong enough for a jump response.

4—Not a forcing bid, but this is about the only weapon at his command.

5—This is a game bid, but three diamonds in this position would be practically forcing. North is fairly sure that his partner has opened with psychic, and so inserts this semi-Slam try in order to further mask his batters.

6—Still refusing to give up his big hand.

7—East finally decides to take some action. Up to this point his partner has given about the strongest bidding possible, and all he has done was to bid once. This bid of his should have given West the proper clue, but apparently failed to do so.

8—Forced to make this bid, in view of the fact that his partner has driven the opponents so high.

9—A really unimaginative bid. It should be evident that the Small Slam is practically certain in view of his partner's bid.

In the play North and South lost 4 tricks, going down 400 points.

East and West could have made seven clubs, seven hearts or seven notrump. Undoubtedly, the fault lay principally with the West player, but so cleverly did North bid as made and an extra-

KING'S BOUNTY AND WARRINGTON FOR SATURDAY'S DOUBLE

KONG BROS' Night Star, winner of the Sydney Mardi Gras, Rooly Hill Derby, and Australian Championships at the Annual Meeting this year, is considered a certainty for the Fremantle St. Leger on Saturday.

NIGHT STAR WILL HAVE NO RIVAL

DERBY WINNER SHOULD NOT BE EXTENDED

(By RAPIER)

HERE will probably be only six starters for the Fremantle St. Leger, as Sunup went lame yesterday and Nglik is reported to be unfit. Tecumseh, which has given one good performance this half, cannot last the distance and it is thought that she will be held over.

Charming Face Good

The Fanling Handicap over six furlongs is one of the most open races of the day. In what promises to be a big field Charming Face (Mr. Proulx) No Fear (Mr. Heard), Paul Jones (Mr. Frost) and Flying Boy look the most likely ponies.

Charming Face looks good at the moment, but Paul Jones has made rapid strides since the first half and must not be overlooked.

Novices Race

Mr. Paul Botelho looks as if he has a winner on Brechin in the Novices Race. The pony is in fine condition and has the best Novice rider up. Alexandra Hall will be taken out by Mr. H. V. Pearce, but Tenorio looks the second best pony.

Per se, which has done little to confirm the promise he showed in the first half, will be taken out by Mr. H. M. Remedios.

Another Win For Mr. Frost?

King's Parade is being given a rest after his failure at Macao on Sunday and Maria Petra is an unlikely starter in the "D" Class Five Furlongs.

Wembly Stag (Mr. Frost) is good enough for a win, though Helter Skelter (Mr. Heard) will need watching. Sticky Past (Mr. Proulx) is a good flyer over the distance, but I doubt whether he will fast any better than to secure third place. Ajax may cause an upset under Mr. Deltz after his Macao win.

Adam, that grand old pony, is now on the decline, but Mr. Butler may be able to snatch a place on him.

The fact of riding six winners in one afternoon is not unique, but there can be only a few people living who can recall its being achieved before Fred Archer did it twice—at Lewis on Aug. 5, 1882, and at Newmarket on April 10, 1877—while George Fordham at the Bury Club Arturo at Stockbridge in 1907, rode six winners and a dead-heater (he was beaten in the dead-head), and at Newmarket on Oct. 28, 1884, he rode six winners including a walk-over.

TIENTSIN'S FORMER LEADING JOCKEY IN H.K.

Leaves To-day By Carnarvonshire.

MR. LEIGHTON, OWNER OF APOLLO

(By RAPIER)

Mr. E. C. Leighton, former champion jockey in Tientsin and owner of Apollo, which still holds the six furlongs record on the Colony track, is leaving for Home on sick leave to-day by the Carnarvonshire after a brief visit to Hong Kong.

Mr. Leighton, who was second only to Mr. Leo Frost in Tientsin racing until 1930, when the champion jockey was transferred to Hong Kong, has not been riding for nine months following a nasty spill on the ice.

Accompanied by Mrs. Leighton he is now on sick leave. During their stay here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frost.

Apollo, the wonder horse on the Colony track in 1931, was formerly owned by Mr. Chan Tin Sui, the prominent local Chinese owner. He was placed third in the Tientsin Championships this year, Cyclamen Bay, formerly owned by Mr. L. Dunbar, also of Hong Kong winning the Northern classic. Apollo, which still holds the six furlongs record of 1:25.1, established in April 1931, is still quite capable of winning races.

$2,574 DIVIDEND.

Ace Of Spades' Win In 1928.

JOCKEY CLUB SCOOPS POOL

(By RAPIER)

A reader has enquired what the record dividend is for the Valley and has thus raised a very interesting point.

On October 6, 1928, Ace of Spades, ridden by his owner, Lt. J. G. Shillington, won the Jordan Handicap for "C" Class ponies over 6 Furlongs, and paid $2,574 to the solitary ticket-holder—the Hong Kong Jockey Club. The ticket is framed on the wall in the Bar at the Jockey Club.

Lt. Shillington was the Adjutant of the 2nd Bn. King's Own Scottish Borderers.

The Ace of Spades, which was a steeplechase pony, had only one backer out of 572 for a win and 5 out of 831 for a place. He paid $234.80 on the latter.

ST. LEGER FAVOURITES SELDOM LOSE

Valorous And Wisdom Stag Fail.

THE LAST NINE CLASSICS

(By RAPIER)

In only two cases has the favourite been beaten in the Hong Kong St. Leger over the last nine years.

In 1930 Mr. "Gus" da Rosa brought King's Colour home ahead of Wisdom Stag (Mr. Leo Frost) to give the Dyhasty Stable a popular triumph.

The following year saw Valorous (Mr. "Benny" Proulx) unplaced and the winner disqualified. Mr. S. N. Pan brought Bright Star home first, but a protest was lodged by Mr. Gilbert Harriman, who was riding Gold Key, for alleged bumping in the straight, and as a result the race was awarded to Gold Key. Bright Star, however, paid $54.30 for a win.

Hong Kong St. Leger

The following are the results of the Hong Kong St. Leger for Griffins for the passed nine years:

1924—Grey Dragon (Mr. Zelenak)
1925—Messrs. Dyer and Belth's Grey Morn (L.L. Comdr. Thompson)
1926—Mr. Roda's Lady Luck (Mr. G. U. da Rosa)
1927—Town Hall (Mr. T. L. Wong)
1928—Mr. L. Dunbar's Coos Bay (Mr. G. U. da Rosa)
1929—Hiawatha (Mr. F. M. L. Soares)

1930—Dynasty's King's Colour (Mr. G. U. da Rosa)
1931—L. T. F. Gold Key (Mr. G. A. Harriman)

1932—Mr. L. Dunbar's Liberty Bay (Mr. L. G. Frost)

Fremantle St. Leger

The Australian St. Leger (the Fremantle) was first run in 1931 when Mr. L. Dunbar's Woodland Stag (Mr. L. G. Frost) won when favourite. Last year Kong Bros' Polar Star (Mr. E. O. Butler) won from the favourite, Mr. E. L. Hosie's The Giraffe (Mr. L. G. Frost).

Subs'. St. Leger

The Sub-Griffins St. Leger was also started in 1931 when Messrs. Hall and Shenton's The Grouse (Mr. L. G. Frost) won when favourite.

Last year Mr. Frost was again successful when on Mr. H. S. Chan's Racing Boy, a red-hot favourite.

DE MINIMIS LIKELY WINNER

VIGILANCE---PARTNERSHIP NEED WATCHING

(By RAPIER)

THE Sub-Griffins St. Leger promises to be the best race of the day, and as it is the second leg of the "double" considerable interest will be taken in it.

In a field of nine starters—Bold General is unlikely to accept—Warrington (Mr. Frost) De Minimis (Mr. Pan), Partnership (Mr. Liang), and Vigilance (Mr. da Rosa) look the best ponies.

Golden Dragon, which won the Challenge Cup under Mr. Heard over 1½ miles earlier this half, is not looking in very good condition, and I very much doubt whether he will be placed. Still the punter must bear in mind that bad jockeyship is often displayed in a race over 1½ miles, and with Mr. Heard up, the Challenge Cup winner has quite a fair chance.

I do not know what to think of Warrington. He did a very poor gallop on Tuesday morning, and was most unimpressive. I do not, however, attach any great importance to this as he has never excelled in his trackwork, but I am now not so certain that he will win as he was worse on Tuesday than I have seen him.

Vigilance, which has beaten Warrington this half, is in good form and should do well in the race, especially if Mr. da Rosa holds him back over the first three-quarters and then tears up the track over the last mile.

De Minimis, an old favourite of mine, should do well over this distance. I would not be the least bit surprised if he won. All reports state that the pony is in good condition.

Partnership, one of the three best subs. of the year, is a very likely winner if Mr. Liang holds him back and waits his chance instead of running the pony off his feet over 1½ miles. Burgomaster (Mr. Davis) is the best outsider in the race.

It is a great pity that National Day was not tested after his failure in the Challenge Cup. He would have had a good chance for the St. Leger.

Mr. Butler will not be seen out on Gay Butterfly, which will be ridden by Mr. Noronha. He has the mount on King Salmon. Melody will probably be taken to the post by Mr. Paul Botelho, providing special permission is granted for the Novice rider to take the pony out in the classic.

The Flying Trio What a race the "B" Class Five Furlongs, the first leg of the "double," is going to be with King's Bounty (Mr. Proulx), The Tiger (Mr. Frost) and Valorous (Mr. Heard) striving for supremacy!

Navy Hall, which I said would win at this Meeting, is not starting and "Benny" has secured the next best position.

Conceding 6 lb. to The Tiger I am just a little afraid that King's Bounty will be pipped at the post, but I think the Dynasty mount is the fitter of the two.

Men's List.

ENID LO-LITTON ON TOP

(By Ace).

THE first official Colony lawn tennis ranking list contains few surprises either in the Men's or Ladies' sections.

W. C. Hung has been honoured by being placed in the first ten. He is undoubtedly one of the most promising of the junior players and merits his position.

Teddy Finch, the K.C.C.'s champion is occupying the modest place of fifth best player in the Colony. Two years ago he reached the Final of the Colony Championship for the third year in succession. Bertie Guest, the K.C.C. No. 2 player, is No. 13 in the list, bracketed with "Y." Hashimura whom I would consider much his inferior. Guest, however, seldom reveals his best in tournament play; and it is on this that the ranking list has been drawn up.

MITCHELL NOT

IN ENGLAND

"Beck Should Secure Place"

(By Athole)

Eric Mitchell, who skippered the Colony cricket eleven, to a sensational victory by 42 runs in Shanghai last year, is a very disappointed man because he was not given a trial following his arrival in the Colony from Home leave early on Saturday morning, and I am in complete sympathy with him.

Mitchell was asked to take A. H. Madar's place in the final trial and was then placed No. 9 in the batting order with the result that he did not get a knock.

I have little hesitation in saying that Mitchell is the best skipper in the Colony, and after his good batting form in England he should have been treated in a better manner than he was.

Mitchell, who came through Shanghai on his way to the Colony, says that the Northerners are fully confident of success against both Hong Kong and Malaya. "They have a good batting side and with Donald Leach, Booth, Pat Madar, Sam Isaac, and Torrie Wilson showing good form with the ball they will be a very hard side to beat," the former skipper told me.

The Hong Kong Team

Discussing the Hong Kong side Mitchell said that though the team had as many as eight bowlers he did not consider the attack very sound, and the batting strength was very doubtful.

"From what I saw at the final trial on Saturday Arthur Beck should walk into the side for the game against Shanghai," he concluded.

(By SCRUM HALF).

Mitchell batted consistently well during the Hong Kong side's tour of Somerset, and later averaged 27 when playing for the Worcestershire Gentlemen during their Cricket Week. He also played for the Worcestershire Club and Ground eleven.

He was very enthusiastic regarding the Somerset tour, which he declared was a definite success. He paid Donald Anderson, the former University captain, a big tribute when he said he batted brilliantly in every match and was the outstanding batsman of the tour.

He spoke highly of Beck's bowling on hard wickets, and said that F. Baker, the Civil Service all-rounder, did very well.

Only two members of Mitchell's 1932 team—A. C. Hamilton and A. R. Minu—have been selected for the match against Malaya which commences on Monday.

LANGMEAD REGISTERS
DOUBLE "HAT TRICK"LEAGUE TITLE ASPIRANTS
ROUTED BY 7 TO 2THOMAS BOTTLES UP MILITARY FORWARD LINE

(By OUTSIDE LEFT)

A SENSATION was caused at Happy Valley yesterday afternoon when H.M.S. Berwick defeated a fairly representative first team from the Borderers by the overwhelming score of 7 goals to 2.

Langmead, the Navy's League centre forward played a magnificent game and scored a double "hat trick," and as a result the Berwick asserted a definite superiority over the Borderers throughout the game.

It must be said, however, that the Borderers were without their regular backs, Mullane and Morrison, though the former is away from the Colony and could not have played in any case.

The Borderers' well-known half-back trio, Wallace, Podmore and Underwood, were on view but they were badly outclassed by the brilliantly Navy forward line.

Second to Langmead's rousing display was the performance of Thomas, the Berwick centre half, whose bulldog tenacity in tackling and amazing stamina caused the complete downfall of the Borderers' forwards.

Hambly, the Berwick left winger, was also outstanding, his play being a feature of the game.

Naval Wingers Excel

Both the Berwick wingers performed well and put the ball right in the Borderers' goalmouth in spite of stout resistance from Underwood and his backs.

The Borderers excelled in wing-to-wing passing, but they lacked accurate snap-shooting forwards to finish off the movements.

Jones was the hardest working military forward, but his poor sense of direction, and his timing were not up to standard.

Duncan, the Borderers' left-winger, gave a good account of himself, but most of his very fine centres were wasted by the inside trio.

Borderers Fall Fall To Pieces

The Borderers' downfall seemed to follow soon after Langmead had completed his first "hat trick," when, in spite of encouragement shouted from the touchlines, the Borderers fell to pieces.

The first goal was scored after twenty minutes, Langmead flashing in a first-timer past Smith from a difficult angle.

The Berwick were soon on the offensive again, and Underwood narrowly missed sending into his own net from goalmouth melee. He deflected a drive into Smith's hands, but the latter managed to throw clear.

Berwick Soon Up

From the goal-kick Langmead took the ball to midfield where he passed out to his left wing and then ran into the goalmouth to head in his second goal.

From the restart Langmead went through on his own to the amazement of the spectators and beat Smith for his "hat-trick."

Just before the interval he culminated a beautiful sweeping movement by the Berwick forwards and added the Berwick's fourth goal.

After the breather the Borderers played listlessly, and could do nothing right with the ball until Langmead netted his fifth goal.

From this stage the Borderers' halves improved, Underwood sending up a fine forward pass from which Jones opened the Borderers' score.

Langmead's Sixth Goal

Soon after, following a strenuous ten minutes in front of the Borderers' goal, Langmead completed his double "hat trick" amid a burst of applause from the touchline, after going through on his own.

Ten minutes from time Langmead took the ball through the Borderers' halves and tapped it to his right, where Jones flashed it into the net for the Berwick's

C.B.A. HOLD
CLUB TO DRAW
AT HOCKEYBoth Teams Weakened
For Encounter.LOWE AND N. WHITLEY
OUTSTANDING
(BY STICKS)

Fielding no fewer than five reserves, the Central British Association, strong challengers for Mamak Tournament honours, played a magnificent game on the Marina ground yesterday to hold a weakened Hong Kong Hockey Club premier eleven to a goalless draw.

A misunderstanding as to which ground the match was to be played on resulted in the game commencing very late. Consequently only a short game, of less than half an hour was possible.

The Club forward line was reshuffled owing to F. E. W. Lammett and Major McIntyre being absentees, their positions being filled by H. W. Lee, the Chinese Oxford University goalkeeper, who played at centre-forward, and T. J. Price of the "Y" who was on the wing.

Potter and Divett were the inside forwards.

Only five of the regular C.B.A. team were fielded. Gurevitch substituted for Moss in goal, and J. White and C. F. Walters were in the forward line in place of W. J. Johnson and C. C. Francis. Two military players filled the positions of A. Pole and N. Whitley, the latter taking Halford's place at centre-half.

Play on the whole was very good, but inclined to be scrappy in parts. Much of the game was played in poor light and the bad condition of the ground made matters even worse.

The Club held the upper hand throughout and attacked continuously. N. Whitley, at centre-half, was outstanding, while Bickford and Allen worked splendidly in defence to hold the Club forwards in check. Several fast shots were flashed in at Gurevitch, but he cleared well in spite of his inexperience.

T. Whitley and Kirst combined very well in the forward line, and were unfortunate not to score when N. Whitley shot at goal from outside the circle and the ball struck the goal-post to rebound to "Tom," who failed to convert the opportunity.

The Club half-back line were brilliant, Lowe, in particular, breaking up the C.B.A. attacks, and feeding his forwards in a praiseworthy manner.

The last ten minutes of the game was played in almost total darkness, which was mainly responsible for inability of the Club to score the deciding goal.

Club—L. D. Skinner, A. A. Dand (Capt.) and J. Rodger; W. A. Reed, H. J. Lowe and E. V. Read; J. L. Tetley, G. E. K. Divett, H. W. Lee, J. E. Potter and T. J. Price.

C.B.A.—A. Gurevitch, A. N. Other, H. L. Bickford, F. W. B. Allen, N. Whitley, A. N. Other, J. J. King, W. H. G. Hirai, T. Whitley, J. White and C. F. Walters.

SAINTS SURPRISED BY R.A.S.C.

Goals by Senior (2) and Hay gave the R.A.S.C. a surprise, though well merited win over St. Andrews Club by 3 goals to 1 in a friendly game at Bookunpoong yesterday. E. P. Fincher scored for the Saints.

RADIO BEAT BERWICK 6-1

G. Singh (4) and Awtar Singh (2) gave the Radio victory over H.M.S. Berwick yesterday at Carling Hill by 6 goals to 1.

LIONEL BARRYMORE OUTSTANDING IN "SWEEPINGS"

STRONG LINE-UP OF FILMS COMING TO THE CENTRAL.

"Stanlio" Laurel And "Ollie" Hardy At Their Funniest In "Fra Diavolo."

"Fra Diavolo" It was a grand idea to put two of the funniest comedians in an opera with an 18th Century setting. The tinkling old-fashioned music by Aubrey makes "Fra Diavolo" (titled in the States "The Devil's Brother") something different in musicals.

The team are vigorously funny despite the artificial background. Don't go expecting Broadway jazz and wisecracks, but give credit where it is due, and laugh heartily at this combination of opera with movement and comedy.

Dennis King, whose "Vagabond King" will long be remembered, returns to the screen to sing delightfully, and his ringing voice gives the necessary touch. He is in his element strutting as the "Robin Hood" bandit who robs the rich only to help the poor.

Thelma Todd with her blonde loveliness wears the elaborate costumes in true Hollywood manner. I doubt whether this fair lady has ever worn so many petticoats.

Henry Armetta is as excitable as ever, and he and the Scotch comedian Jimmy Flanagan do a great deal to add to the enormous amount of humour.

Hal Roach gives comedy prior place, and from the moment of their first entrance (heralded by the famous cuckoo theme) "Stanlio" and "Ollie" disporting the whole picture, and it is difficult to say in which scene they are at their funniest. How the kiddies will revel in it! The Queen's should be packed for a week.

"Bondage" "Bondage" may be looked upon as a tract or sermon. It gives Dorothy Jordan a wonderful chance as Judy Peters, who is led into the fatal error, and committed to an institution.

Rafael Ottiano (remembered as the maid in "Grand Hotel") is the matron who delights in torturing her charges.

The story is weird, but compelling, and the whole cast, which includes Merle Tottenham, Dorothy Lihaire, Alexander Kirkland and Eddie Woods give excellent accounts of themselves. It is little Dorothy Jordan, though, who turns out the star performance, and I advise you seeing this just to see how this young actress is improving (King's).

"The Past of Mary Holmes" We who remember our "Movien" recall the magnificent performance given by Louise Dresser in "The Goose Woman." The late Jack Pickford was the son, and, if I remember rightly, Constance Bennett, the girl in question. Now these parts are taken by a stage actress, Helen McKellar, Eric Linden and Jean Arthur, in the talkie version retitled "The Past of Mary Holmes."

The story by Rex Beach is unquestionably melodramatic hokum, but if you are not too critical you will find the mother-love theme to your liking.

Personally I think the two chief characters are a little hysterical, and liable to over-act. Skeeta Gallagher turns in a good performance.

See it, if only to compare it with your original idea of this play. (Central).

Mistress Of Atlantis"

"Mistress of Atlantis" is a Nero production, done on the same magnificent scale that I remember when it was a silent, about ten years ago. The Italian Film Company have the valuable services of Brigitte Helm, (seen here in "Blue Danube") John Stuart and Gibb McLaughlin, so that the dialogue will be at least delivered in cultured accents. (Central).

"The Texas Bad Man"

Tom Mix will shortly appear in what is easily one of the most exciting "Westerns," seen here in a long time. Don't fail to take the kiddies to see Tom Mix and Tony in "The Texas Bad Man." Tom Mix and Tony have definitely tired from screen work, so whenever one of their films comes along

Booked for a Year—In Jail

Sally Rand, whose fan dance made her famous, has sixty days in which to appeal the verdict of a year in jail and $200 fine which was handed down when the dance she did in Chicago was judged "obscene."

Fox Line-up At King's

What do you think of this for a line-up? Spencer Tracy and Colleen Moore in "The Power and the Glory," a magnificent drama done in what is termed in the studio "narration," a most novel idea carried out by Jesse Lasky.

Then one of the sentimental "Smilin' Through" type. Next Leatrice Howard in his favourite play, "Berkeley Square," with little Heather Angel, whom I knew when she was out here in the Forbes Russell Co., playing at the old city Hall. She is starred in the last adventure of "Charlie Chan" (the author, Earl Derr Biggers is now dead); and around Xmas, Lillian Harvey and Lew Ayres in "My Weakness."

This time, Fox have given the over-rated Continental star a big cast, music and pretty girls, and the attractive leading man it should be a winner. All due in the next two months at the King's.

I'm TELLING YOU -

Wendy Barrie (Jenkin) in an interview recently with the London "Film Pictorial" states that she has had an offer from Hollywood, but if "Alex" says she is not to go, it means she won't. Alex being Alexander Korda, the famous Hungarian Director.

Hugh Williams with whom she has just finished "This Acting Business," (linked in "Rome Express" here), is on his way to the Film Capital to be added to the long list of Britishers in favour there now.

Wendy goes on to say that she owes her theatrical career to the fact that her father, well-known Barrister, wanted her to stay home and be just a proper young lady. She preferred independence, and started to learn Beauty Specialist work, gave that up in six months, ditto shorthand and typing.

Star Theatre Bookings

The last film Buster Keaton made for Metro "What, No Beer?" with Jimmy Durante helping him in the laughs. Phyllis Barry, so outstanding in "Cynara," is wasted as a gangster's moll.

"Clear All Wires," gives Lee Tracy a chance again as a reporter but this is a film for which I did not care. Benita Hume does a bit, and Una Merkel is her usual self.

Lee could not fail to be clever, but the film is not worthy of him.

Followed by John Gilbert and Robert Armstrong in "Fast Workers." Story of two rough rascals and their cheap loves, with broad dialogue. Mae Clark and Robert Armstrong are the best in it. All coming to the Star.

Newest Hollywood Air Elopers

While Hollywood gossip were linking her name to that of Jimmy Dunn, her film lover, daily visitors, wives may, spent all the "inside" dope by sleeping by plane to Yuma, Ariz., and returning Harry Joe Brown (man), film director. Miss Miller was a secret divorce from her husband.

SMILING FOR A LIVING

Most Photographed Girl In England.

DISLIKES THE JOB

London. There is a girl in the world who earns her living by smiling. And she doesn't like her job.

So frightened is she that something will make it fade that she just had her smile insured for £1,000. Her perpetual nightmare is that some morning she will wake up feeling sad.

Almost everyone has seen her. Sometimes she is smiling over soapuds, sometimes it is a shiny floor, or a new ring, or a pot of jam that causes her to look so merry.

Fifty times a week her mouth curls up at the corners and her beautiful teeth break through in an enchanting smile. The rest of the time she is on holiday.

She is Miss Betty Spurling, the most photographed girl in England. She poses for newspaper and magazine advertisements and is photographed about 50 times a week.

"Recently," she said, "I insured my smile for £1,000. It is my most valuable asset in earning a livelihood and I can't afford to lose it."

"Sometimes I grow tired of smiling. Then I just go off in my motor-car and vanish for a few days." —Reuter.

EX-POLICE SHROFF COMMITTED.

Embezzlement of $3,170 Alleged.

Appearing of 14 charges of embezzlement of sums totalling $3,170, Ng Wing-tsui, former shroff of the Accounts Office, Police Headquarters, was committed to stand his trial at the next Criminal Sessions by Mr. Schofield at the Central Police Court this morning.

The accused, who resigned from the Government service early this year, was arrested in Canton, following the discovery of irregularities in the Police accounts.

RETURNED BANISHEE GAOLED

Described As Dangerous Communist

He was banished from Hong Kong nineteen months ago.

here on his way from Italy and Spain, back to Hollywood to another after eight years of happy married life in divorcing her Manager-husband George Webb.

Corinne Griffith has been trying on the stage, and now makes a reappearance in the talkies as second to Loretta Young in the new Company. All Hollywood is talking of the action by Garbo, in insisting that John Gilbert take the part of her Latin lover in "Queen Christina." When the first day's rehearsal was called, no Garbo-frantic telephone calls elicited the fact. "When Mr. Gilbert is on the lot, Garbo will appear"; and then

Now we shall see. Garbo once truly loved Gilbert; but it is known. Perhaps this is her way of returning his kindness to her, when she was unknown, although all Hollywood knows J. G. gave her up when he fell in love with Ina Claire.

Sir Gerald du Maurier is now a grandfather.

Mario Lohr's daughter will marry a shipping man from India. Cicely Courtneidge and Jack Holt were guests at the last Royal Garden Party.

Loretta Young and Spencer Tracy are going places together. He says he will not be divorced, only separated. Married twelve years, and has two children, the baby only being a few months old.

The girl-mother of the most famous baby in Hollywood, Baby le Roy, who made his name in "Bedtime Story," is now only sixteen, and is going to the High School in Hollywood. She lives with Baby and her parents in a small bungalow, and he is causing a sensation all over the world.

NEW BISHOP FOR PRETORIA

Great-Grandson Of A Primate.

CONSECRATION CEREMONY

Pretoria.

Clad in the purple cassock which he wore as chaplain to the Archbishop of York at the coronation of the King, the Venerable Wilfred Parker was consecrated the fifth Bishop of Pretoria in St. Alban's Cathedral on Sunday, July 23, by the Archbishop of Cape Town, the most Reverend Francis Phelps, assisted by the Bishops of Natal, Johannesburg, Southern Rhodesia, Kimberley and Kuruman; the Assistant Bishop of Bloemfontein, and Bishop J. J. Fuller.

Archdeacon Wilfred, who two years ago was appointed Archdeacon of Pretoria and Director of Native Missions in the Pretoria Diocese, was chosen to succeed Dr. Neville Talbot as Bishop is a grandson of the Earl of Macclesfield and a great-grandson of the Most Rev. G. T. Longley, formerly Archbishop of Canterbury. He is also related to the Duke of Westminster. He was born in London and among the many important clerical appointments he has held was that of domestic chaplain to the Archbishop of York until 1912, and curate during the War to St. Martin-in-the-Fields. He also served as a chaplain to the forces in France and Italy, being awarded the Italian War Cross. His pastoral staff has been made by the natives at the Grace Dieu Mission near Petersburg (Northern Transvaal). —Reuter.

LORRY OVERTURNS NEAR SHEK-O.

Two Coolies Injured

Two coolies were injured, one seriously, when a motor-lorry carrying road metal overturned on the Shek-O Road near Windy corner yesterday morning. The lorry was badly damaged.

The two men were taken to the Government Civil Hospital. Fong Ying, the more seriously hurt, was suffering from injuries to his head, body and legs, while the other, Cheung Tai, received injuries to his back and both arms.

TAKING A FILM AT 27,800 FEET.

Epic Pictures Of Everest Expedition.

London.

Mr. Wyn Harris, the cinema-man who accompanied Mr. Hugh Ruttledge's Mount Everest Expedition, declared when his film was first shown in London that during stages of the work he was trembling so violently from the intense cold that he could hardly take his pictures.

The highest point at which he took any "shots" was 27,800 feet. At this altitude his breathing was badly affected.

One can almost feel the intense cold and suffer with the climbers in their hardships, so graphic is the picture. The climbers are seen hacking their way up sheer walls of ice, like flies, and battling against tremendous gales of wind and thick clouds of driven snow.

HUNTERS SHOOT 130 ELEPHANTS.

Protecting Gardens In Northern Rhodesia.

Bulawayo.

Two hunters, Messrs. Hall and Rangley, engaged by the Northern Rhodesian Government in connection with the protection of native gardens and the reduction of the number of elephants in the northeastern portion of the territory, have accounted for more than 130 elephants.

Among those shot was one with 90 lb. tusks, which, but for being damaged at the tips, would have touched the 100 lb. mark. While a number of tuskless elephants were among the bag, the asceral of ivory to the Government should well cover the cost of the expedition. —Reuter.

WOOLWORTH TWINS IN U.S.

Daughters Born At 5 a.m. And 10 a.m.

Cresson, Pennsylvania

Pending selection of names, Mrs. Joseph Frank are referring to their newly-born twin daughters as the "Woolworth twins." One was born at 5 a.m. and the other at 10 a.m.

"Five and Ten" is the term applied to Woolworth shops in America, because they originally sold articles for 5 cents and 10 cents. Americans do not say "Let's go to Woolworths." They say "Let's go to the 5 and 10." —Reuter.

Plan To Merge Three Armies
General Weygand, Chief of the French General Staff, is in Prague. He has gone there to discuss informally the subject of military collaboration between the French and Czechoslovakia General Staffs in emergencies.

France will cultivate her friends of the Little Entente even more assiduously than hitherto if any practical steps are taken to implement a proposal which the Entente Ministers discussed at Sinaia.

This project is the unification of the armies of the three small Powers—Jugo-slavia, Czechoslovakia, and Rumania.

Their Military Strength.

The proposal was first made some months ago. The fact that it has been raised afresh has caused no surprise in Paris, since the Little Entente States have already agreed to co-ordinate their political and economic activities.

A merger of their armies would practically alter the balance of military power in Europe. It would give them an army even larger than France's own. All three nations have conscription, and their trained reserves are therefore limited only by their man-power.

Their standing armies in peace time are as follows:

Jugo-slavia 211,307;
Rumania 240,601;
Czecho-slovakia 141,696.

The total is 593,234 men. The French "metropolitan" army—that is, troops stationed in France—consists of 340,637 men, and the total French Army, including Colonial forces, of 578,900 men.

All three Little Entente armies are well-equipped with tanks and modern artillery. In addition, Jugo-slavia has 568 airplanes, Rumania 773 and Czecho-slovakia 546, a total of 1887. The French air strength is 2,286 military machines.

Football With Tears

While the eyes of the political world are fixed on Vienna, the Viennese themselves have been watching a football match.

Sixty thousand of them assembled to see their countrymen defeat the Italians in the final of the Mitropa Cup, a trophy which carries with it the club championship of Europe.

The game was war with boots instead of rifles. Two Italians were sent off the field for fouling. After the scoring of the first Austrian goal the Italian goalkeeper fell on the ground and "wept bitterly."

When the cup was being presented he had not recovered from his emotion. With a loud sob he buried his face in his hands and ran from the room.

Humour In Bavaria

Stage jokes in Munich nowadays are heavily sauced with politics. These jokes have a strong anti-Austrian flavour, and are not very subtle. Neither fact surprises me.

Typical of these jokes is a scene showing a schoolmaster teaching a class. He asks his pupils: What is the animal which is small, black, and spits venom?

There is a moment's silence.

Then the bright boy of the class raises his hand. "I know, teacher," he says. "Dolfuss."

The stolid Bavarian audience rocks with laughter.

BRITISH ARMY IS UNREADY

MECHANISATION NOT MODERN ENOUGH

DEFICIENCY IN TANKS

(By Captain Liddell Hart.)

The general verdict among officers who watched the Army exercises of 1933 seems to be that it was one of the dullest years since the war. I do not entirely agree.

The onlooker proverbially sees most of the game, and for those who came to find an answer to the question whether our Army is fit for modern war, the results of their observation were undoubtedly disappointing.

To anyone who paused to reflect on the lessons of the last war, let alone the portents of the future, the atmosphere of the operations was often blatantly unreal.

But for the participants, especially the regimental officers and men, this year brought a welcome development of interest. In busily carrying out their part they could forget the bigger issues. And their part was busier than usual.

One should not forget that the large exercises which give practice to the staff, and have a strategic appeal to the onlooker, are apt to be depressingly tedious to the rank and file.

A Scope For Battle Craft

The staff feel that they are manoeuvring a body thousands strong; the onlooker sees the whole process of envelopment and the opposing headquarters' anxiety. But many of the men in the ranks merely know that they sat still for hours in boredom and then marched weary miles in a sweating column with a "closeup" of the next man's neck for picture.

Meantime the causes of depression are accumulating. Most prominent is the paucity of modern equipment.

The so-called "programme of mechanisation" has been practical only at a standstill for years. We have only enough artillery to provide a thin barrage for one infantry battalion out of twelve in a division, and, even so, the difficulty of reconciling protracted surveys methods with mobile operations is generally recognised.

Machine-Guns And Tanks

An alternative is the use of tanks. Yet we have still only one tank battalion for each division. To make the deficiency worse, unlike the chief armies abroad we have gone back to our pre-war proportion of infantry—surely a most ironical reflection on our ability to learn from hard experience.

Moreover, all the medium tanks in our four battalions are of a ten-year-old type. Five years ago we hurried on the manufacture of a much improved machine in order to get it out before the old machines were worn out. Now it is being mooted that these five years older tanks should be kept on for another five years! And the battalions are not even complete in light tanks yet.

It is the more ominous because even those who cling to the belief that guns will knock out fast-moving tanks have come to admit the difficulty of finding any other than the infantry-killing machine-guns.

11.20 Troops will march off. Individuals may then lay wreaths.

CEREMONY AT CHINESE MEMORIAL.

On the conclusion of the Ceremony at the Cenotaph, His Excellency The Governor and Staff, followed by His Excellency The General Officer Commanding The Commodors, Officer Commanding Royal Air Force and the Executive and Legislative Councils, will rendezvous at Government House and proceed to the Chinese Memorial on foot.

They will arrive at about 11.45 a.m. and will lay wreaths. At the conclusion of the Ceremony this party will return to Government House on foot, where cars will be in readiness.

Those desirous of attending the Ceremony should arrive not later than 11.40.

HONG KONG BANK BUILDING

Demolition Work Progresses Swiftly.

Completed in 1880, after nearly two years of building, the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank Building, with the exception of the granite columns at the front and rear, has within three weeks, been all but razed to the ground.

With the domed roof and side walls demolished, the tall granite columns of the porch in Queen's Road, in their desolate surroundings, suggests an historic ruins of a Roman temple.

Amid the din of concrete breakers, and the chug-chug of a granite breaking machine on the site of the old Beaconsfield Arcade, hundreds of workmen are busily engaged in carrying away debris and stones from the building. Huge cranes, with far-reaching arms, stretch over the building and lift large blocks of granite from the walls. Once on the ground, the concrete breakers with their ear-splitting tool, set upon it and quickly drill the block into hundreds of small pieces.

These are carried to the granite crusher, where they are ground into pieces, ready for concrete work. Already a small mountain of these stones is heaped on the adjacent site.

In the meantime, other workmen are busily engaged in preparing the new site, and a gang of workmen handling an earth-drill have reached a depth of over 100 feet. Even deeper, however, will they drill for the firmness of the rock on which the foundation of the new great Bank building must stand has to be ascertained.

Messrs. Logan and Amps. are the engineers in charge of the work.

RUGBY CHAMPIONS TRIUMPH.

Hampshire Beat Kent At Blackheath.

WIN FOR MIDDLESEX

London, To-day.

Hampshire County Rugby champions for the last two seasons, beat Kent by 17 points to 8 in the Championship at Blackheath yesterday.

In the only other match played Middlesex beat the Eastern Counties by 16 points to 8.

FOUR WINS IN SUCCESSION FOR RICHARDS

Two Behind Archer's 246 Winners.

NINETEEN DAYS RACING BEFORE HIM

London, To-day.

With 19 racing days ahead of him Gordon Richards, the champion jockey, requires only three more wins to beat Fred Archer's fifty-year-old record of 246 winners in a season.

At the Worcester Race Meeting yesterday Richards rode four winners in succession to bring his aggregate for the season to 244.—British Wireless Service.

Fred Archer, who recorded 2748 winners in his career and whose fifty-year-old record of 234 winners in season Gordon Richards is attempting to beat, was for 12 years the leader of his profession.

For years Archer had to battle with a tendency to put on excessive weight, and as a consequence he faced many privations in order to go to scale at just under 9 st.

Richards, in contrast, is not troubled by "up at 7 st. 7 lb." Nevertheless, an urge for breakfast is quite a meal for the leading horseman.

Richards has never had a Turkish bath in his life. Exercise is his sole method of keeping his weight down.

According to a report in an Australian paper Richards may ride in the centenary Melbourne Cup in Australia next year.

HITCH IN LUANTUNG PACIFICATION.

Bandits Decline To Be Disarmed.

POLICE REINFORCEMENTS BEING SENT

Tientsin, To-day.

Pacification work in the Luantung districts is again being hindered by the refusal of the bandits in the walled city of Funing to be disarmed. This state of affairs may compel the Chinese Special Police forces to resume their attack on Funing, which is still being partially besieged by them.

The Hopei Provincial Government is despatching additional police detachments, armed with light guns and trench mortars, to Luantung. Their arrival there will probably mark the resumption of fighting with the bandits.—Central News Agency.

JAPANESE ENVOY COMING SOUTH.

Speculations As To Motive Of Journey.

TO MEET ENGENE CHEN AND OTHER LEADERS?

Shanghai, To-day.

Regarding the movement of Mr. Sugimura, ex-Japanese Secretary to the League of Nations, some observers believe that one of his missions to South China is to meet Mr. Eugene Chen and other Southern leaders.

An earlier report says that he is sailing for Foochow from Shanghai and will stay at Foochow for a short period before proceeding to Hong Kong.—Central News Agency.

DESTROYERS BACK FROM EXERCISES.

The Eighth Destroyer Flotilla, consisting of the Flotilla Leader Keppel and the Destroyers Verity, Veteran, Whitehall, Whitshead, Wild Swan, Wishart, Witch and Wren, which left for exercises on Monday, returned to port this morning.

The departure of the French Sloop, Savorgnan de Brazza, for Shanghai has been postponed until Monday next.

Otilia Helga Augusta Krebs, late of 1, Anker Heegaardsgade, Copenhagen, left local estate of $4,200. Letters of administration have been granted to Michael Howard Turner, solicitor and lawful attorney.

BURMA ENVOYS FOR LONDON.

It is anticipated that the new delegates will then be associated with the Committee in the same way as have the Indians during recent months.

The new delegates represent the leading interests in Burma and comprise advocates and opponents of separation from India.—British Wireless Service.

To-day's Short Story.

MAMMON AND THE ARCHER

By O. Henry.

OLD Anthony Rockwall, retired manufacturer and proprietor of Rockwall's Eureka Soap, looked out the library window of his Fifth Avenue mansion and grinned. His neighbour to the right — aristocratic clubman, G. Van Schuyler Suffolk-Jones — came out to his waiting motorcar, wrinkling a contumely nose at the Italian renaissance sculpture of the soap palace's front elevation.

"One. By hickey! it's almost made one of me. I'm nearly as impolite and disagreeable and ill-mannered as these two old Knickerbocker gent's on each side of me that can't sleep of nights because I bought in between 'em."

"There are some things that money can't accomplish," remarked young Rockwall rather gloomily.

"Now, don't say that," said old Anthony, shocked. "I bet my money on money every time. I've been through the encyclopedia down to Y looking for something you can't buy with it; and I expect to have to take up the appendix next week. I'm for money against the field. Tell me something money won't buy."

"For one thing," answered Rockwall, "I won't buy one into the exclusive circles of society."

"Oho! won't it?" thundered the champion of the root of evil. "You tell me where your exclusive circles would be if the first Astor hadn't the money to pay for his steerage passage over?"

Richard sighed.

TO-MORROW'S STORY

To-morrow's story will be "The Big Drum," by William Gerhardi.

"And that's what I was coming to," said the old man less boisterously. "That's why I asked you to come in. There's something going wrong with you, boy. I've been noticing it for two weeks.

"Out with it. I guess I could lay my hands on eleven millions within twenty-four hours, besides the real estate. If it's your liver, there's the Rambler down in the bay, coal-ed, and ready to steam down to the Bahamas in two days."

"Not a bad guess, dad; you haven't missed it far."

"Ah," said Anthony keenly, "what's her name?"

Richard began to walk up and down the library floor. There was enough comradeship and sympathy in this crude old father of his to draw his confidence.

"Why don't you ask her?" demanded old Anthony. "She'll jump at you. You've got the money and the looks, and you're a decent boy. Your hands are clean. You've got no Eureka soap on 'em. You've been to college, but she'll overlook that."

"I haven't had a chance," said Richard.

"Make one," said Anthony. "Take her for a walk in the park, or a straw ride, or walk home with her from church. Chance! Phew!"

"You don't know the social mill, dad. She's part of the stream that turns it. Every hour and minute of her time is arranged for days in advance. I must have that girl, dad, or this town is a black-jack swamp for evermore. And I can't write it—I can't do that."

"Tut!" said the old man. "Do you mean to tell me that with all the money I've got you can't get an hour or two of a girl's time for yourself?"

"I've put it off too late. She's going to sail for Europe at noon day after to-morrow for a two years' stay. I'm to see her alone to-morrow evening for a few minutes. She's at Larchmont now at her aunt's. I can't go there. But I'm allowed to meet her with a cab at the Grand Central Station to-morrow evening at the 8.30 train. We drive down Broadway to Wallack's at a gallop, where her mother and a box party will be waiting for us in the lobby. Do you think she would listen to a declaration from me during those six or eight minutes under those circumstances? No. And what chance would I have in the theatre or afterward? None. No, dad, this is one tangle that your money can't unravel. We can't buy one minute of time with cash; if we could, rich people would live longer. There's no hope of getting a talk with Miss Lantry before she sells."

"All right, Richard, my boy," said old Anthony cheerfully. "You may run along down to your club now. I'm glad it ain't your liver. But don't forget to burn a few punk sticks in the sofa-house to the great god Mazuma, from time to time. You say money won't buy time? Well, of course, you can't order it."

FOOD AND HOME ECONOMICS

Fish Has Protein Value Of Meats, But Is Lighter, Less Heating Food

Menus these days can be varied by the use of fish. Fresh or canned, it offers many possibilities for economical and appetizing meals. Because the protein of fish is essentially of the same value as that of meats but is a lighter, less heating food, it is particularly desirable. Then, too, fish, and especially deep sea fish, is regarded as one of the most important foods for children.

Steam "Lean" Fish.

The so-called "lean" fish are the good steamed. These are the fish which have their fat secreted in the liver, leaving the flesh clear and white. After cooking they are dry andaky and very tender. Cod, haddock, flounder, fluke, trout, smelts, black bass, bluefish, pickerel, and many others belong to this group.

Loss of flavour and nutrient are lost when fish is steamed than by other methods of cooking. The process is short, involving little heat and the cooked fish is especially delicate. However, the accompanying sauce is of utmost importance and must be chosen with discrimination. Kinds Of Sauce To Serve. Drawn butter sauce is the special sauce for steamed fish. The same sauce may be served with fish cooked in several ways, but there's always a special sauce that goes particularly well with fish cooked in each special way.

Maitre d'Hotel butter is served with broiled fish, tartar sauce with deep-fried, black butter with pan-fried or sauted, tomato and egg sauce with boiled and baked fish. Each method of cookery has its special sauce which adds much to the tastiness of the fish.

Drawn butter sauce is made like white sauce, using water in place of milk and seasoning pleasantly with lemon juice.

Maitre d'Hotel butter is butter worked until creamy and well seasoned with parsley and lemon juice.

Tartar sauce is a mayonnaise sauce with added material. Minced olives, pickles and capers are the materials usually added to mayonnaise to make tartar sauce.

Apple Fritters

Simple And Economical Season's Dish.

Many home cooks have an idea that fritters are a sweet that should be left to the professional hand, that they require some skill beyond that of the every day cook.

This is really not the case. Once the simple technique of trying batter in hot fat so that it emerges crisp, golden, and free from grease is mastered the fritter course may be required as attractive, economical, and a welcome change from heavier or too elaborate forms of sweet course.

Many kinds of fruit can be dipped in fritter batter and fried, such as bananas, oranges, pineapples, but just now when apples are plentiful and cheap they should be used for fritters.

To make the batter soft 1/2 lb. of flour into a basin, make a well in the centre and drop in the yolk of an egg. Take 1 oz. of butter and melt it or use the same quantity of salad oil. Mix gradually with the flour and egg. Whip the white of the egg to a stiff froth and mix it lightly. Pare the apples thinly and remove the core with a cutter, then slice the fruit into thin slices, to form rings. Dip each ring in the batter, take out with a skewer and plunge into hot, deep frying fat. When golden brown remove, drain on kitchen paper, pile on a hot dish and sprinkle with custard sugar before serving.

Stuff Celery With These Various Relishes.

Stuffed celery makes an attractive garnish for the meat platter. The stalks may be filled with a number of different fillings; cream cheese alone or in combination with minced green pepper, finely chopped pimento, nut meats, olives, or with mashed avocado which has been seasoned with salt, pepper and a little lemon juice.

A combination of one-third anchovy paste or caviar and two-thirds mashed avocado is equally delicious.

Keep Canned Foods In Cool, Dry Place.

After food has been canned and sealed, the jars should be allowed to cool undisturbed. Then they should be wiped thoroughly and stored in a cool, dry place.

Experiments have shown that there is a great deal more spoilage in fruits, vegetables and meats than foods stored in a cool place.

COOKING CAMEOS

Cheese straws handed with tomato soup are delicious and a pleasing change.

True economy means no waste. No scrap of food is too small to be used up as long as it is wholesome.

Beef is more tender in cooler weather, as it can be hung for a longer time.

Tasty New Sauce Served With Lamb

A currant mint sauce is particularly good when served with lamb. It is easily prepared and is made by beating 1 glass of currant jelly with a fork until the jelly is in tiny pieces.

To this add 3 tablespoons of finely cut fresh mint leaves and 2 tablespoons of grated rind of orange, a dash of salt and a wee bit of red pepper for seasoning.

FOR MASHED POTATOES

To make potatoes fluffy and light heat butter and milk together and beat into the mashed potatoes.

POTATO NUTRITION

Do not leave peeled potatoes soaking in cold water for a long time, or they lose some of their mineral salts.

Wrapping Ice Is Considered Poor Economy

MAY LAST LONGER BUT REFRIGERATOR WILL NOT BE COLD

Washington. The labour of wrapping paper around the ice in the icebox is a dubious economy, the Bureau of Home Economics has found through special laboratory tests. The housewife, these hot summer mornings, may wrap the ice to keep it longer, but at the same time she is endangering the more expensive foods which she is trying to preserve by the use of ice.

Wrapping the ice not only makes the box warmer, but it saves an average of only two pounds of ice in 24 hours or about one cent in cost, these experts say.

In addition, undesirable odours are condensed on the moist, cold surfaces when the ice is wrapped.

The object of refrigeration is to safeguard food from bacterial increase, which goes on more rapidly as the temperatures rise. Currents of cold air move downward from melting ice so that the place just below the ice chamber is the coldest spot, and the best place to keep milk and meat, which should be stored at temperatures below 45 degrees Fahrenheit, the bureau explains.

The currents move across the floor of the icebox and then upward, absorbing heat from the food and the walls of the box, making the upper shelves of the box less and less cold.

The tests conducted by the bureau showed that the chamber below the unwrapped ice was 42 degrees in temperature, while the chamber under the wrapped ice was 43 degrees.

The difference increased on the upper shelves until the temperature on the top shelf was 50 degrees for the box in which the ice was unwrapped and 52 degrees for the one in which the ice was enveloped in paper.

Man's Highest Flight Achieved by Russians

Three Russians, Prof. George Prokofiev, Ernest Brinbaum and C. D. Godunow, have invaded the stratosphere to a height of 11 miles, 1,400 yards (62,336 feet), breaking the previous record of Professor Auguste Piccard and Max Cosyns of Belgium who soared 10 miles, 117 yards (63,163 feet). The highest man had ever flown in an airplane was accomplished by Frenchman Gustave Lemire a few days ago, when he reached a height of 44,923 feet. His record is not yet official. Shown are Prokofiev and Brinbaum, engineer. The spherical gondola (above), and a trial inflation of the balloon are also shown. At the right is pictured Mt. Everest, highest point in the world, the Empire State Building, tallest structure ever built, and the flight records in comparison.

Byrd Ship and Youthful Skipper Off for Pole

As for the infantry, they still have to carry on with war-time Lewis guns, cumbersome and obsolescent, waiting year after year for a modern and "light" automatic. They still wave green and white flags to represent anti-tank guns they do not possess. Only one brigade is modernised with mechanised machine-guns, mortars, and transport. Last year there were two, partially equipped—one has been stripped so that the other might be more fully equipped. It is a curious form of progress.

Out-Of-Date Weapons

In partial explanation of this state of unfitness for European warfare, the head of the General Staff has recently expressed the opinion that "the Army was not likely to be used for a big war in Europe for many years to come." He may prove right, and everyone will hope so. But the pre-war General Staff considered that a European war was not imminent as late as July 27, 1914. One week later such a war was several days old and we were in it.

Even if our forces have no worse danger to contend with than the semi-civilised States that surround our distant frontiers, and have recently been simulated in the 1933 exercises, it is hardly fair either to our soldiers, their relatives, or the tax-payer who pays the psonal to send them to fight with out-of-date weapons. Especially now that even semi-civilised peoples have machine-guns and light automatics.

The idea of basing our exercises on such warfare is excellent as training, although harmful if it is used as an excuse for keeping the Army in a defective state of equipment. As training, it has undoubtedly stimulated the tactical sense of the younger officers and N.C.O.s. But it has also revealed an ominous lack of mental elasticity and also of self-confidence among a number of the senior officers. This is a matter of general remark.

Surprise in Warfare

At the beginning of this year authority itself laid down the indispensable importance of surprise, and emphasised it as the supreme lesson of the war. This official recognition of a truth that many unofficial critics have laboured for years to point out, in face of attempted suppression, was a most encouraging portent.

Authority, moreover, enjoined the need of developing surprises in our training, pointing out that no attack against an enemy in position was likely to succeed without surprise or surprise effect. Unfortunately, I have seen scant signs in this year's exercises that the warning or the instruction has been generally taken to heart.

With few exceptions, even where surprise was attempted, it was of a crudely obvious form. When one studies the profound subtlety and variety of the ruses employed to bring off such surprises as those on Aug. 8, 1918, in France, or Sept. 19 in Palestine, it is only too clear that the art of surprise has fallen lamentably into neglect.

Egyptian "King Kong" Runs Amok

Glorious Hour Of Destruction.

ARRESTED WITH DIFFICULTY

Alexandria. Abu Khatwa, the huge bull-necked "Terror" of Alexandria, has met his Waterloo.

One of the most notorious characters in Egypt, he has repeatedly defied the law, owing to his colossal strength.

But now Abu is languishing in prison, in handcuffs and leg irons. He had one glorious hour of destruction before the police succeeded in capturing him. Here is the story.

Abu was driving his small car along the Alexandria Corniche at 2 a.m. He collided with a sedan chair.

Roaring like a bull, he vented his rage on the offending vehicle. He tore off the lamps, windscreen and other accessories. He twisted the mudguards into unrecognisable shapes and he broke all the windows.

Then he strode into a nearby cafe and wrecked that. Glass crashed in all directions; tables, chairs, plates and dishes shot through windows on to the pavement. Everybody fled for shelter.

Nemesis was behind Abu, however. The car he had collided with belonged to the Minister for Justice, Ahmed Aly Pasha.

A squad of police arrived on the scene. Abu roared like King Kong. As each constable tried to arrest him, he hurled them over his head on to the road.

At last two European traffic constables, with drawn revolvers, managed to subdue the giant. Abu was then up with ropes; bundled into a handcart and trundled off to the police station.

He was united at the police station and there Abu ran amok again. He smashed down the door, broke the windows and created general havoc.

Finally a veritable army of police fell upon him en masse. So far he has not managed to break his handcuffs or leg irons.—Reuter.

LEAGUE RELIEF FOR JEWS.

American Aid Promised

Washington. Secretary of State Cordell Hull, replying to a League of Nations invitation to have the United States represented on the body designated to assist Jewish and other refugees from Germany, said to-day the United States would be happy to aid.

An American, James Grover McDonald of New York, chairman of the board of the Foreign Policy Association and a member of the National Commission on American-Japanese relations, was chosen by the League as high commissioner for the refugees.

MOTOR TRANSPORT EXHIBITION.

STRIKING ADVANCE OF DIESEL TYPE ENGINES

London, To-day. The great advance of the Diesel or compression-ignition type of engine, as applied to motor buses and coaches and to goods transport vehicles, is one of most striking features of the Commercial Motor and Transport Exhibition which opens at Olympia to-day.

One luxurious 30-seater coach is shown which runs at a fuel cost of a farthing per mile.

Self-changing gear boxes are fitted to many of the passenger coaches exhibited, some having eight different forward speed ratios.

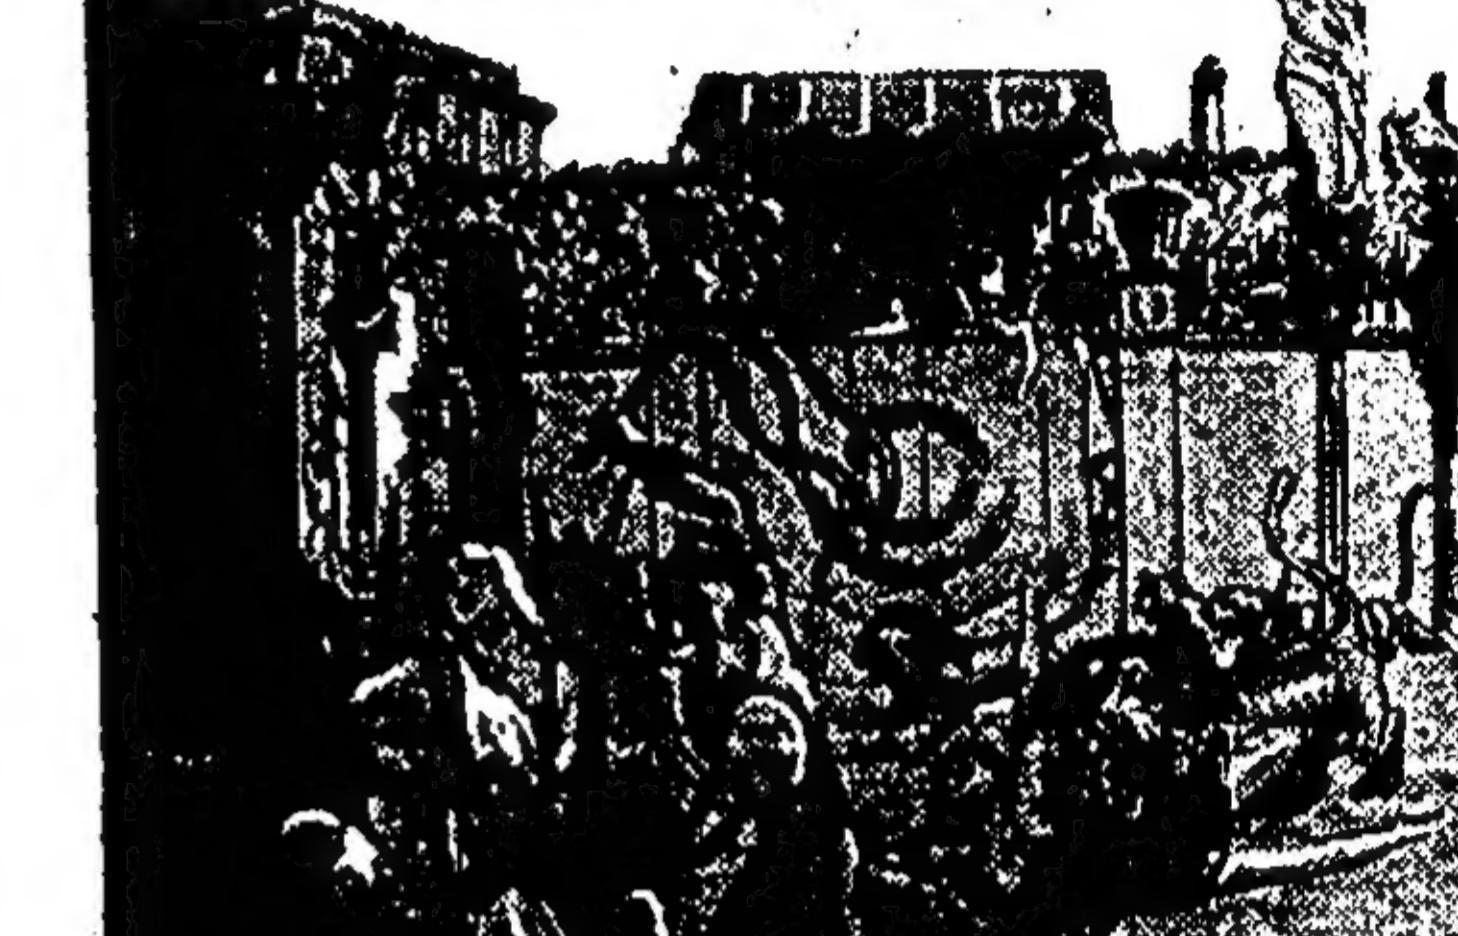

The biggest exhibit is a 69-seater rail couch fitted with the latest type of London bus engine, similar to that with which a speed of 100 miles per hour was recently attained at Brooklands.—British Wireless Service.

Always have GARDAN in the house!

In the tropics pain and illness are particularly liable to appear suddenly. In headache, toothache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, muscular pains, and above all in fever and its accompanying symptoms, GARDAN is of definite value.

When you are out of sorts remember:

prevents and stops pain.
